Mostar as a rehearsal for the 2022 elections and the abolition of the “shackles” of Croats in BiH? – Vecernji.ba

📅 December 29, 2020

In Vecernji.ba, journalist Zoran Krešić argues that the recent Mostar election was a rehearsal for Sarajevo political forces' planned theft of the 2022 general elections. Krešić recounts alleged irregularities during the local elections in November and this month's elections in Mostar and argues that the foundation for this effort was the “political trickery” that took place with the naming of the new Central Election Commission, which he claims “became a crucial component of the mosaic around the preparations to completely eliminate the Croats as a political factor in the 2022 general elections.”
